A brown folding stool with a metal frame and a padded seat, positioned against a white backdrop on a red floor. The stool has a simple, functional design with a rectangular seat and a curved backrest. The frame is made of dark metal, and the seat is covered in a brown, textured fabric. The stool is standing on a red, slightly worn floor. Behind it is a large white sheet of paper or a backdrop. To the right, there is some clutter, including a plastic bag and some papers.
